

Is managing your employees like trying to herd cats?

Wrangling over payroll, benefits, evaluations and other day-to-day office chores poses huge challenges for Human Resources professionals. They need to ensure their companies – and their employees – comply with the array of complex laws governing the workplace.

Whether it's evaluating exposure for overtime compensation, retaliation or discrimination claims, seeking enforcement of non-compete agreements, employee training, updating handbooks – or if you already face workplace litigation – our posse of employment law litigators is available to serve as your resource for managing your HR legal issues.

Congratulations to the winners and nominees of the 2008 Excellence in Human Resources Awards.
